Aflame with faith

In the Old Testament, fire often symbolizes the presence of God's Spirit. For example, God called to Moses from a burning bush (Exodus 3:2-6) and defeated the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel (1 Kings 18:30-39). In the New Testament, tongues of fire rested atop the believers gathered on Pentecost (Acts 2:3).

Some Christians have described a burning or current-like sensation when they encounter God. Methodism founder John Wesley said his heart was "strangely warmed" during worship. After such an encounter, people often feel compelled to share the Good News of Jesus. The flame of faith inside one believer can spark a revival of faith in others. As Charles Spurgeon said, "A burning heart will soon find for itself a flaming tongue."

Use scrap paper to fuel new growth and make a gift that keeps on giving.

What you need:

- Scrap paper
- Water
- Herb or flower seeds
- Blender

What you do:

1. Tear the scrap paper into strips and place in a bowl. Cover the paper with water and let it soak overnight.
2. Pour the mixture into a blender and blend about 10 seconds.
3. Strain and squeeze the paper pulp to remove excess water. Place in a bowl.
4. Sprinkle seeds over the pulp and mix to incorporate them into the pulp.
5. Shape the pulp into a flat layer on the cookie sheet. Use a towel to soak up excess water. Allow the paper to dry completely.
6. Tear paper into shapes or fold into a card. You can plant the paper directly into soil. Water it and then watch your plants grow!

DEVOTIONS

for Spiritual Growth

A house united

When President Lincoln declared in 1858, “A house divided against itself cannot stand,” he was echoing Jesus. Scribes thought Jesus was casting out demons by Satan’s power, so Jesus responded, “How can Satan cast out Satan? ... If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand” (Mark 3:23-25, NIV). There are countless modern examples: Civil wars. Families torn apart. Business partners going separate ways. Even churches splitting.

Jesus used the “house divided” image to point out the nonsense of the scribes’ words. It takes someone other than the “strong man” (v. 27), or demon, occupying a space to cast that demon out. Evil can’t drive out evil. Sin isn’t stronger than sin. Hate doesn’t solve hate. Violence doesn’t end violence. Two wrongs don’t make a right.

Jesus came to “bind” evil with goodness, conquer hate with love and teach us the same. Throughout the gospels, Jesus treats all people with love — even those who oppose him — so that, in the end, we all will be a house united by God’s goodness.

You are my witnesses

John White (1924-2002) was a medical missionary, psychiatry professor, church planter and prolific author who wrote about faith and outreach. He refuted the notion that being an effective witness for Christ is akin to being a salesperson. Christians are representing and sharing a person, he said, not touting a product.

“A good witness is like a signpost,” he added. “It doesn’t matter whether it is old, young, pretty, ugly. It has to point the right direction and be able to be understood. We are witnesses to Christ; we point to him.”

I WILL

In introducing the Model T in October 1908, Henry Ford proclaimed, “I will build a motor car for the great multitude.”¹ I think it’s safe to say that in that case, when Mr. Ford said, “I will” he meant what he said. He kept that promise. Many people boast, “I will do this, or “I will do that,” but fail to keep their word. Several years ago, Pastor Jensen did a message series based on Jesus’ “I Am” statements (“I am the bread of life, I am the door, I am the light of the world, etc.). He is now working through a new message series based on many of the “I will” statements Jesus made based on the ESV translation of the Bible. Please note: This series is not an exhaustive coverage of Jesus’ “I Will” statements. We can be confident of this: Anytime you read a statement in the Gospels where Jesus said, “I will,” you can totally and completely be confident that He will do what He said He will do. Some of Jesus’ “I Will” proclamations are based on a condition. Others are negating statements (such as, “I will not” or “I will never”). We will look carefully at the context in which Jesus made these statements. The connection between an “I Will” statement and its context may surprise you in some cases! The series will continue through Easter, Ascension and Pentecost Sundays. Below is the tentative remaining “I Will” series schedule.

Mar. 31 (Easter Sun.)	“I Will See You Again”	John 16:16-33
Apr. 7	“I Will Go Ahead of You into Galilee	Mark 14:27-31
Apr. 14	“I Will Continue to Make it Known”	John 17:20-25
Apr 21	“I will Come Again and Take You to Myself”	John 14:1-6
Apr. 28	“I Will Build My Church	Matthew 16:13-20
May 1	“I Will Give You a Mouth and Wisdom	Luke 21:5-18 -
May 8	“I Will Raise Him Up”	John 6:41-59
May 5	“Whatever You Ask in My Name I Will Do it”	John 14:13-14
May 12 (Ascension Sun.)	“I Will Be With You a Little Longer	John 7:32-52
May 19 (Pentecost Sun.)	“I Will Ask the Father; I Will Come to You”	John 14:15-30

Lower Level Fellowship Hall

LADIES WE HAVE EXCITING NEWS!

We will be concluding our study on PURSUING CONTENTMENT in mid April.

Following this study, Pat Watson will be leading a 4 week study titled

TASTE AND SEE

Starting April 16, for four sessions, we will take an unforgettable culinary adventure through the Bible using video and a study from Margaret Feinberg, one of America's beloved Bible teachers. Have you ever thought about how amazing it is that God is a "foodie?" The Psalmist declared, "Taste and see the Lord is good" (Psalm 38:8). Margaret took this invitation literally and embarked on a global culinary and spiritual adventure, descending 410 feet into a salt mine, baking fresh matzo at Yale University, harvesting olives off the Croatian coast, and tasting succulent figs at a premier fig farm. With each person she encountered, she asked, "How do you read the Scriptures in light of what you do every day?" Their answers will change the way you read the Bible...and the way you approach every meal renewing a vibrant faith and unlocking a fruitful life! You are invited to the table! Come check it out!

We are excited to begin this new study in April and to have Pat Watson lead this study. All ladies are invited to attend each Tuesday at 10:00 AM in the lower level of the church.

For more information contact Kay Liddick at 717-732-5064 or denkaylid@msn.com

Pat Watson at 717-979-0219 or pwatson4@verizon.net

The Children's Ministry would like to thank you for your donations for our Easter Egg Hunt. We had a fabulous Parents' Day Out, with 25 children in attendance. The rain certainly did not keep the children from enjoying a fun egg hunt indoors.

In addition, thank you to the parents, musical helpers, and Maxine Rudy for helping with our Easter Musical. "He Is Risen." What an honor for the children to be able to share the Jesus' journey through Holy Week and celebrate His resurrection and the eternal life He offers us. Thank you all and praise the Lord that Jesus Paid It all!

PROGRAM -

Michael Wayne Smith

Michael is a Christian singer / songwriter from Oak Ridge, TN. He has been traveling in ministry with his family since 2009 proclaiming the love of Christ through his music. Growing up, Michael was influenced by different styles of music, but his primary interest has always been southern / country gospel. This is evident when you hear his songs like "Everything's Fine", "Until The Storm Is Over", or "This Too Shall Pass". As you listen to him sing, you know the songs are coming from the heart of someone who has experienced trials just like anyone else. His latest radio single "My God Can Do Anything" reminds us that in troubled times, we are not to underestimate what God can do! Please plan to come for some food and fun and to hear Michael Wayne Smith. You will experience music that not only lifts your spirit, but will draw you into God's presence. His songs come from his heart and will find their way into yours!

Please give or send your Spring Fling registration, along with your money to our church contact person, Liz Swope, by April 17. Liz will then send all registrations and monies to the treasurer, Larry Welker.
